Dear Abe:

Further to our brief telephone conversation last week, I send you herewith a copy of the materials we received from Andy Sacks under cover of a letter dated October 23. The letter offers no explanation of the Brown & Williamson material, and we have assumed that it was inadvertently omitted from B&W's other submission of the same date.

If you feel that further checking is warranted, please do not hesitate to ask the staff for clarification and let us hear of any new information.

Very truly yours,

Carl
